Director – Marketing and Student Recruitment

Salary up to £83k

Our objective is to place students at the heart of everything we do and attracting them to study with us is a most crucial part of our offering. Leading the marketing and student recruitment department, this is a challenging role for a highly creative individual who will bring flair and innovation to the role.

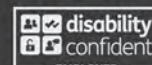

Your ability to lead, influence and motivate professional and academic colleagues will be tried and thoroughly tested. As a senior leader you will be expected to contribute at the highest levels of leadership within the University, using innovative initiatives and personal credibility to help us achieve our strategic aims.

To discuss the requirements of the role in more detail, please contact Professor Helen Langton, Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) on 01443 482579.

Closing date: Thursday 29 March 2018

Selection assessments and interviews to be held: 10-11 April 2018

“Times Higher Education has helped to foster another important dimension of diversity at Harvard: international diversity. The exposure of Harvard's faculty positions on THEunijobs, since we embarked on our subscription package in October 2015, enhances our outreach efforts to a global community and showcases our institution as a destination of choice for academics around the world. Working with the THE team has also been a pleasure, and has enriched the conversation around international recruitment and retention.

— Elizabeth Ancarana, assistant provost for faculty development and diversity, Harvard University”

Cardiff Metropolitan University is a global university that meets the civic, economic and international needs of Wales and the wider world.

With its roots in the capital of Wales, Cardiff Metropolitan University has a global reach through its practice-focused and professionally recognised education, research and innovation and its extensive network of international partners. Growth, diversification and enhancement of both our student experience and our research impact are at the heart of our new values-driven Strategic Plan for 2017/18 - 2022/23.

We are investing in our future and our ambitious strategy will further develop Cardiff Met's research standing, having already been judged to have the highest quality research amongst modern universities in the most recent United Kingdom Research Excellence Framework (REF 2014).

Ours is a future where the best talent will be attracted and supported and where our four key values of creativity, diversity, freedom and innovation will establish Cardiff Met as an enterprising university with extensive civic, economic and international impact.

A truly international university, with more than 17,000 students from over 140 countries, our students and staff benefit greatly from our location in Cardiff, a vibrant and friendly capital city renowned for its high quality of life. Cardiff is a city of green spaces, unique sporting and cultural experiences and quality shopping and entertainment. Located on the coast, and set against the backdrop of the Brecon Beacons, Cardiff is only two hours from London and Birmingham by road or rail and Cardiff Airport has direct flights to a range of UK and international destinations. There has never been a better time to become part of our exciting journey.
